

Accelerate Your Impact Through EVALUATION

It is not just what you do that matters but the impact and change that you make. At Transform Consulting Group, we help organizations do better at what they do. We work alongside you to identify your program opportunities.

COLLABORATE

We follow a participatory approach to evaluation where we work with you and not for you. We work alongside you to identify your program opportunities.

ASSESS

Evaluation and improvement science are powerful tools for helping programs advance. We provide our expertise to make the correct program recommendations.

CREATE

We design and manage program evaluation plans for clients as they implement federal, state, and privately-funded grant programs.

“ Transform Consulting Group has helped us to really get into the details about processes and evaluating programs.
Dennis Bland, President of Center for Leadership Development ”
